

JROTC

The mission of Air Force Junior Reserve Officers Training Corps (JROTC) is to “Develop citizens of character, dedicated to serving their nation and community” with the following stated goals:

To instill

- The value of citizenship
- Service to the United States
- Personal responsibility
- A sense of accomplishment

This mission and accompany goals combine with the Air Force’s Core Values of “Integrity, Service before Self, and Excellence in All You Do” Clearly supports Cathedral Prep’s mission to create young men of “Spirit, Mind, and Body.”

We aim to educate and train our high school cadets in citizenship; to promote community service; to instill responsibility, character, and self-discipline; and to provide first-class instruction in global and cultural studies, principles of flight, leadership, management, and character education. Specific objectives of the AF JROTC program are:

- Values of citizenship...ethics and integrity
- Service to the United States...patriotism and community service
- Personal responsibility...accountability
- Sense of accomplishment...fit mind, body, and spirit

In concert with the school’s stated college preparatory mission, we have tailored the 4-year AF JROTC curriculum to meet academic requirements and student interests.

JROTC

965 Aerospace Science I R/Global and Cultural Studies I	Two Semesters
Grade: 9	Credit: 1.0
Prerequisite: None
This is the first year of a two-year course of instruction in Global and Cultural Studies. Global and Cultural Studies is a multidisciplinary course that introduces students to various regions of the world from a geographic, historical and cultural perspective. The course provides increased international awareness and insight into foreign affairs that permits a more educated understanding of other cultures and enhanced knowledge of America's interests and role in the world. Geopolitical issues such as terrorism, economics, politics, military issues, religion, environmental concerns, human rights, disease, over-population, literacy, the migration of peoples and other cultural issues will be examined. The regional areas included in this course are Europe, the Middle East, and South Asia. The lessons include videos to provide a window into life and issues within the regions, followed by a variety of hands-on activities created to engage the student. Readings are also available to set the stage for each lesson, along with workbook exercises suitable for in-class or homework assignments. All students enrolled in this course are required to wear the AF JROTC uniform on prescribed uniform wear day (normally once each week.) College credit through the University of Colorado, Colorado Springs may be awarded to students completing this course with a grade of B or higher. This course may be taken to meet the student's 1st year social studies requirement.
966 Aerospace Science I H/Global and Cultural Studies I	Two Semesters
Grade: 9	Credit: 1.0
Prerequisite: Recommendation for Honors
This is the first year of a two-year course of instruction in Global and Cultural Studies. Global and Cultural Studies is a multidisciplinary course that introduces students to various regions of the world from a geographic, historical and cultural perspective. The course provides increased international awareness and insight into foreign affairs that permits a more educated understanding of other cultures and enhanced knowledge of America's interests and role in the world. Geopolitical issues such as terrorism, economics, politics, military issues, religion, environmental concerns, human rights, disease, over-population, literacy, the migration of peoples and other cultural issues will be examined. The regional areas included in this course are Europe, the Middle East, and South Asia. The lessons include videos to provide a window into life and issues within the regions, followed by a variety of hands-on activities created to engage the student. Readings are also available to set the stage for each lesson, along with workbook exercises suitable for in-class or homework assignments. The honors and regulars sections of this course are taught utilizing the same textual and supplemental materials. The honors student is required to show great conceptual understanding and is required to complete 'term' projects. All students enrolled in this course are required to wear the AF JROTC uniform on prescribed uniform wear day (normally once each week.) College credit through the University of Colorado, Colorado Springs may be awarded to students completing this course with a grade of B or higher. This course may be taken to meet the student's 1st year social studies requirement.

967 Aerospace Science II R/Global and Cultural Studies II	Two Semesters
Grade: 10	Credit: 1.00
Prerequisite: Successful completion of Aerospace Science I or the permission of the principal
This is the second year of a two-year course of instruction in Global and Cultural Studies. Global and Cultural Studies is a multidisciplinary course that introduces students to various regions of the world from a geographic, historical and cultural perspective. The course provides increased international awareness and insight into foreign affairs that permits a more educated understanding of other cultures and enhanced knowledge of America's interests and role in the world. Geopolitical issues such as terrorism, economics, politics, military issues, religion, environmental concerns, human rights, disease, over-population, literacy, the migration of peoples and other cultural issues will be examined. The regional areas included in this course are East Asia, Africa, and Latin America. The lessons include videos to provide a window into life and issues within the regions, followed by a variety of hands-on activities created to engage the student. Readings are also available to set the stage for each lesson, along with workbook exercises suitable for in-class or homework assignments. All students enrolled in this course are required to wear the AF JROTC uniform on prescribed uniform wear day (normally once each week.) College credit through the University of Colorado, Colorado Springs may be awarded to students completing this course with a grade of B or higher. This course may be taken to meet the student's 2nd year social studies requirement.
971 Aerospace Science II H/Global and Cultural Studies II	Two Semesters
Grade: 10	Credit: 1.0
Prerequisite: Successful completion of Aerospace Science IH or the permission of the principal
This is the second year of a two-year course of instruction in Global and Cultural Studies. Global and Cultural Studies is a multidisciplinary course that introduces students to various regions of the world from a geographic, historical and cultural perspective. The course provides increased international awareness and insight into foreign affairs that permits a more educated understanding of other cultures and enhanced knowledge of America's interests and role in the world. Geopolitical issues such as terrorism, economics, politics, military issues, religion, environmental concerns, human rights, disease, over-population, literacy, the migration of peoples and other cultural issues will be examined. The regional areas included in this course are East Asia, Africa, and Latin America. The lessons include videos to provide a window into life and issues within the regions, followed by a variety of hands-on activities created to engage the student. Readings are also available to set the stage for each lesson, along with workbook exercises suitable for in-class or homework assignments. The honors and regulars sections of this course are taught utilizing the same textual and supplemental materials. The honors student is required to show great conceptual understanding and is required to complete 'term' projects. All students enrolled in this course are required to wear the AF JROTC uniform on prescribed uniform wear day (normally once each week.) College credit through the University of Colorado, Colorado Springs may be awarded to students completing this course with a grade of B or higher. This course may be taken to meet the student's 2nd year social studies requirement.

963 Aerospace Science III	Two Semesters
Grade: 11 or 12	Credit: 1.0
Prerequisite: None
Advanced Aerospace Science and Aviation Fundamentals is designed to prepare third year cadets for increased roles of responsibility within the corps of cadets and provides them information about themselves, others and leadership. Students receive a blended curriculum which includes the fundamentals of aviation and flight; leadership and management theory; and personal wellness and fitness. Students are assigned to functional positions within the corps of cadet's structure and are responsible for cadet personnel, supply, and the planning of extracurricular.
969 Aerospace Science IV	Two Semesters
Grade: 12	Credit: 1.0
Prerequisite: None
The course is designed to allow 12 th grade cadets the freedom and flexibility to develop and execute the current year corps of cadets activity program. On-going programs such as the Annual JROTC Military Ball, drill and color guard competitions, personal wellness and fitness, cadet physical testing, and cadet field trips are coordinated by AS-4 cadets.	